BRUNSWICK EAST PRIMARY SCHOOL POLICY

1. Scope

This policy applies to members of school staff and the school council at Brunswick East Primary School. This policy will be made available on request.

2. Review date

This policy was adopted at Brunswick East PS School Council meeting on 15 September 2011 and shall be reviewed in September 2014 and updated if required.

3. Background

All staff of Brunswick East Primary School are required by law to protect the personal and health information the school collects and holds.

The Victorian privacy laws, the Information Privacy Act 2000 and the Health Records Act 2001, provide for the protection of personal and health information. The Acts establish standards for the collection, handling and disposal of personal or health information.

The privacy laws do not replace any existing obligations Brunswick East Primary School has under other laws. Essentially this policy will apply when other laws do not regulate the use of personal information.

4. Definitions

Personal information means information or opinion that is recorded in any form and whether true or not, about an individual whose identity is apparent, or can be reasonably be determined from the information or opinion. For example this includes all paper and electronic records, photographs and video recordings.

Health information is defined as including information or opinion about a person's physical, mental or psychological health, or disability, which is also classified as personal information. This includes information or opinion about a person's health status and medical history, whether recorded or not.

Sensitive information is defined as information relating to a person's racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religion, trade union, or other professional, or trade association membership, sexual preferences, or criminal record that is also classified as personal information about an individual.

In this policy personal information refers to personal information, health information and sensitive information unless otherwise specified.

Parent in this policy in relation to a child, includes step parent, an adoptive parent, a foster parent, guardian, or a person who has custody or daily care and control of the child

Staff in this policy is defined as someone who carries out a duty on behalf of the school, paid or unpaid, or who is contracted to, or directly employed by the school or the Department of Education and Early Childhood Development (DEECD). Information provided to a school through job applications is also considered staff information.

5. Policy context

Personal information is collected and used by Brunswick East Primary School to:

- provide services or to carry out the school's statutory functions
 - assist the school services and its staff to fulfil its duty of care to students
 - plan, resource, monitor and evaluate school services and functions
